

Instead of just punishing polluters, governments need to stop subsidising them. We are becoming dependent on exporting dirty coal; the world will remember our role in sabotaging the environment. We need to assist clean renewable energy sources. Australia is blessed with innovative, visionary scientists developing ever-better means of harnessing our abundant renewable energy.

Please do not miss this one chance to save our future!

Name: Lyle PASSFIELD