

Summary of Sub 128

This submission argues that the franchising sector is already sufficiently regulated by the Franchising Code of Conduct, the Trade Practices Act, related legislation and common law. The submitters see no reason for additional regulation.

This submission is from a franchisor.