

Summary of Sub 134

This submission outlines a situation in which it is alleged that, within months of a franchisee opening their business, a second franchise opened close by—such that it was difficult to attract sufficient customers. The submission states that the current code of conduct is not sufficient to protect franchisees.

This submission is from a franchisee.