

Summary of Sub 29:

This submission notes that any amendment to the Franchising Code of Conduct to incorporate a duty of good faith would place a specific duty upon franchisors and franchisees that does not occur more broadly in other areas of consumer protection.

This submission is from a legal professional.