

Summary of Sub 88:

This submission outlines an alleged case of bullying and intimidation by a master franchisee and a franchisor, and questions whether the unconscionable conduct provisions in the TPA are sufficient to provide legal protections to franchisees. The submission also points out that the high costs of litigation are beyond the means of many franchisees.

This submission is from franchisees.