

The sexualisation of TV both in programs and commercials as well as the appalling foul language has forced my family to stop watching it (even in News time).

If ever there is an emergency notice for the public we will miss it.

We have become the Media Police particularly with the Internet.

Give families a go for a change and clean it all up prior to 8:30pm.

Yours faithfully
Moira Blau