Dear Secretary,

I have prepared my concerns for the Senate Inquiry as follows.

Easy access to pornography for children is a great concern on the Internet and T.V.

It's sad to see children of a young age acting like teenagers when they mean to be children.

Content in young girls magazines is not regulated which I believe it should be. Pornographic magazines are available at children's eye level in newsagents, petrol stations, 7/11s, corner stores etc.

The advertising industry regulates itself and only act if there are complaints from the public. As many people do not know how or where to complain effectively means that the advertising standards Board does not reflect prevailing community standards.

I trust these concerns will be taken into consideration.

Yours faithfully
(Mrs) Eileen Hannahan
