

Dear Madam,

I am very pleased to hear a member of parliament actually taking a stand for the welfare of our little ones.

You are right in your view that children should be children, and certainly the media has a lot to answer for, they and others have lost it completely, and our children will pay the price, unless we stop it.

Kind regards.
Dina Fernandez