

The stand by the government on solar rebate is beyond comprehension,

Why is this rebate only available to people whose total household income is below $100,000.00??

I was of the thinking that Kevin would be better for this nation than little Johnny was. I have never been so wrong in my life.

Every time one turns on the TV or reads a paper, good old Kevie has taken back something else he had promised to us Australians.

He is only a public servant who is abusing his power.

I am embarrassed to admit to having voted for him, I will not make that mistake twice.

Next election, for the first time in 35 years, I will vote for little Johnny's mob.
