

I think it is ironic that the government will tax us for carbon emissions but on the other hand means test people who want to do the right thing and convert to solar power.

The government cannot afford to sit on the fence with reactive policies. It must invest heavily in alternate energy resources like solar power.

Kindest regards

Brendan Rogers
Retail Manager
Water Dynamics Mildura