

I would like to add my voice to the many thousands of Australians who support the ABC and wish to see the staff nominated member of the board remain. Don't let the Howard government go down in history as the one which irrevocably changed the Australian culture and robbed it of talented and innovative cultural influence.

Jeanette Castle