

Hi,

A primary concern I have is why is the removal of indigenous representation even being considered. Indigenous peoples own this land of Australia and the waters that surround it. Why is it being considered? Why?

What justification does European Australians have to remove Indigenous Australians from this board? What is the justification?

There is no justification for that?

Frank Loban