Dear Sir/Madam,

Submission ToThe Senate Inquiry Into Australia's Tax System

In my opinion a simple system would be a single tax return lodged after June 30 each year for income tax and GST to be paid by July 31. It would then be unnecessary to estimate provisional tax for the following year, extra visits to accountants, and refunds from the tax office, caused by seasonal conditions and unsure markets. With modern day technology this should be possible.

Yours Faithfully,

Arthur C. Butler
