

We strongly disagree with more Foreign Investment in our Country, Australia.

There is enough of an identity crisis within Australia to the point where Australians are almost made ashamed of being Australian and told that any comments to the contrary are considered Racist.

If we sell off anymore, then there goes more of our identity – but in real terms, not just emotional.

The Government does not own this Country and MUST abide by our wishes.

DO NOT ALLOW THIS UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES.

Our Country was fought for with the lives of our fallen Heroes – do not betray their trust and legacy.

*We are AUSTRALIAN....and proud of it....I am a Christian and respect other faiths & cultures–
BUT WE ARE A CHRISTAIN COUNTRY founded on those beliefs, and, as we would be expected to do in their Country, they must accept and alter their attitudes....not the other way around.*

Don't DARE call us racist.

We are AUSTRALIAN.

Warm Regards

Tony & Susie Young
