

From: mary-anne naumann
Sent: Thursday, 23 July 2009
To: Economics, Committee (SEN)
Subject:solar credits

The government needs to get on with what they promised to do and that is to make it more affordable to install solar energy into our homes. After the previous assistance was scrapped, I was left unable to take part when I was actively trying to source a supplier to my satisfaction. Now there seems to be no assistance available.

Cheers

Mary-Anne