In 1999 Senator Minchin said:

“Dr Batterham has been Managing Director, Research and Technology Development at Rio Tinto since 1995. His experience in both the public and private sector will ensure he play a major role in promoting linkages between science, industry and government, which are critical if we are to have an innovative, knowledge-based economy.”

In 2002 Minister McGauran said:

“From 1988, Dr Batterham has held senior positions in Technology Development with CRA Limited, now Rio Tinto Limited. He has lectured in higher education institutions in Australia and overseas and has been a member of a number of major reviews of higher education and government research organisations, and has produced nearly 200 papers, publications and patents”
