Dear Sir

Complaint to OEA – AWA of Alan Kuret

We refer to previous correspondence forwarded to you 31st August 2004 and a phone conversation between yourself and Karen Scoble from this office on 24th March 2005.

We were advised that the OEA would keep Karen Scoble informed of the OEA's and DEWRSB's progress on these matters. To date however we have heard nothing further from OEA.

Accordingly we request notification as to the steps that have been taken to progress this matter.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

Re Allan Kuret and Shamrock Holdings (WA) Pty Ltd ("Shamrock")

I refer to your letter dated 14 June 2005.

The current situation is that the OEA has now been able to gather evidence based on documentation and interviews of relevant Shamrock officers such that a report is presently being finalised. That report will then be considered by the Employment Advocate.

I will contact you once there has been further progress on the matter.

Yours sincerely
