

Asian Women at Work Inc

Additional Submission to Senate Education, Employment and Workplace Relations Committee Inquiry into the Fair Work Bill 2008

23rd February 2009

Asian Women at Work Funding Sources

Asian Women at Work have no ongoing funding source, and have been funded by a wide range of organisations in each financial year, including State, Federal and local government, religious and private foundations, local clubs, unions and individuals.

This financial year our funding sources have been -

Large Grants – above $100,000

Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs
NSW Department of Community Services

Medium range Grants

Trust Foundation, Estate of Eric Norman Sweet
Uniting Church 2% for Development Fund
Mounties Club
Burwood RSL Club

Small Grants - $5000 or less

Australian Ethical Investment Trust
TCFUA
LHMU
AMWU
Kogarah Council
Hurstville Council
SEARCH Foundation
Individuals

This work of the Action Group being briefed and making submissions to the Award Modernisation process and the Fair Work Bill inquiry has been funded by the grants from the Trust Foundation and the Australian Ethical Investment Trust.

We have only ever had one grant that was specifically for a project around employment rights for workers, which was a $55,000 grant from the NSW Office for Women in 2006-2007.

Further Submissions

We would also like the Senators to note the submissions made by other organisations in support of our Asian Women at Work submission.

These include -

Bankstown Area Multicultural Network Inc
Oxfam Australia
Women's Electoral Lobby
University of NSW Industrial Relations Research Centre
FairWear

Debbie Carstens
Development Officer
Asian Women at Work Inc
0437 879 442