

Dear Sir/Madam,

Re: Adequate compensation coverage and support to Australian Tests Participants (Nuclear Veterans) of the British Nuclear weapons Tests in Australia.

I am concerned that the British Nuclear Weapons Tests (Treatment) Bill 2006 does not provide adequate compensation coverage and support to Australian Tests Participants (Nuclear Veterans) of the British Nuclear weapons Tests in Australia.

I believe that all military personnel who are bona fide British Nuclear Weapons Tests participants and whose names appear in the Government's nominal roll, and to those civilians who were fully employed by the Federal Government and were present during the actual tests or may have been involved in the cleanup period after the actual tests should have full coverage under the Veterans Entitlement Act.

Yours sincerely,
Bettina Quatacker
