Part 2—National Security Lo	egislation Monito
-----------------------------	-------------------

Division 1—Establishment,	, functions and powers of
National Security	Legislation Monitor

5 National Security Legislation Monitor

There is to be a National Security Legislation Monitor.

6 Functions of the National Security Legislation Monitor

- (1) The National Security Legislation Monitor has the following functions:
 - (a) to review the operation, effectiveness and implications of:
 - (i) Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation; and
 - (ii) any other law of the Commonwealth to the extent that it relates to Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation;
 - (b) to consider whether Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation:
 - (i) contains appropriate safeguards for protecting the rights of individuals; and
 - (ii) remains necessary;
 - (c) if a matter relating to counter-terrorism or national security is referred to the Monitor by the Prime Minister—to report on the reference.
- (2) To avoid doubt, the following are not functions of the National Security Legislation Monitor:
 - (a) to review the priorities of, and use of resources by, agencies that have functions relating to, or are involved in the implementation of, Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation;
 - (b) to consider any individual complaints about the activities of Commonwealth agencies that have functions relating to, or are involved in the implementation of, Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation.

Section	7

(3)	The National Security Legislation Monitor has the power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of the Monitor's functions.

7 References to the National Security Legislation Monitor

- (1) The Prime Minister may refer a matter relating to counter-terrorism or national security to the National Security Legislation Monitor, either at the Monitor's suggestion or on his or her own initiative.
- (2) The Prime Minister may alter the terms of a reference.
- (3) The Prime Minister may give the National Security Legislation Monitor directions about the order in which he or she is to deal with references.

8 Regard to be had to international obligations and constitutional arrangements

When performing the National Security Legislation Monitor's functions, the Monitor must have regard to:

- (a) Australia's obligations under international agreements (as in force from time to time); and
- (b) arrangements agreed from time to time between the Commonwealth, the States and the Territories to ensure a national approach to countering terrorism.

9 Emphasis to be given to counter-terrorism and national security legislation that has been applied or considered recently

When performing functions relating to Australia's counter-terrorism and national security legislation in a particular financial year, the National Security Legislation Monitor must give particular emphasis to provisions of that legislation that have been applied, considered or purportedly applied by employees of agencies that have functions relating to, or are involved in the implementation of, that legislation during that financial year or the immediately preceding financial year.

10 Consultation with agencies etc.
------------------------------------	--

2	(1) When performing functions relating to Australia's
3	counter-terrorism and national security legislation, the National
4	Security Legislation Monitor must have regard to:
5	(a) the functions of agencies that have functions relating to, or
6	are involved in the implementation of, that legislation; and
7	(b) functions relating to that legislation that are conferred on a
8	person who holds any office or appointment under a law of
9	the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory.
10	(2) When performing functions relating to Australia's
11	counter-terrorism and national security legislation, the National
12	Security Legislation Monitor may consult with:
13	(a) the head of any relevant agency (of a kind mentioned in
14	paragraph (1)(a)); or
15	(b) the Ombudsman; or
16	(c) the Inspector-General of Intelligence and Security; or
17	(d) a person mentioned in paragraph (1)(b);
18	as the Monitor considers necessary.

Division 2—Appointment of National Security Legislation

2	Monitor
3	11 Appointment
4 5	(1) The National Security Legislation Monitor is to be appointed by the Governor-General by written instrument, on a part-time basis.
6 7 8 9	(2) Before a recommendation is made to the Governor-General for the appointment of a person as the National Security Legislation Monitor, the Prime Minister must consult with the Leader of the Opposition in the House of Representatives.
10 11 12 13	(3) A person must not be appointed as the National Security Legislation Monitor unless the person is, in the Governor-General's opinion, suitable for appointment because of the person's qualifications, training or experience.
14 15 16	(4) A person's appointment as the National Security Legislation Monitor is not invalid because of a defect or irregularity in connection with the person's appointment.
17	12 Term of appointment
18 19 20	(1) The National Security Legislation Monitor holds office for the period specified in the instrument of appointment. The period mus not exceed 3 years.
21 22	(2) The National Security Legislation Monitor is eligible for reappointment once only.
23	13 Remuneration and allowances
24252627	(1) The National Security Legislation Monitor is to be paid such remuneration as is determined by the Remuneration Tribunal. If no determination of that remuneration is in operation, the Monitor is to be paid such remuneration as is prescribed by the regulations.
28 29	(2) The National Security Legislation Monitor is to be paid the allowances that are prescribed by the regulations.

1 2	(3)	This section has effect subject to the Remuneration Tribunal Act 1973.
3	14 Leave	of absence
4 5 6		The Prime Minister may grant leave of absence to the National Security Legislation Monitor on the terms and conditions that the Governor-General determines in writing.
7	15 Outsid	le employment
8 9 10 11		The National Security Legislation Monitor must not engage in any paid employment that conflicts or may conflict with the proper performance of his or her duties without the Prime Minister's written consent.
12	16 Disclo	sure of interests to the Prime Minister
13 14 15 16		The National Security Legislation Monitor must give written notice to the Prime Minister of all interests, pecuniary or otherwise, that the Monitor has or acquires and that conflict or could conflict with the proper performance of his or her functions.
17	17 Other	terms and conditions
18 19 20		The National Security Legislation Monitor holds office on such terms and conditions (if any) in relation to matters not provided for by this Act as are determined, in writing, by the Governor-General.
21	18 Resign	nation
22 23	(1)	The National Security Legislation Monitor may resign by giving to the Governor-General a signed notice of resignation.
24 25 26	(2)	The resignation takes effect on the day on which it is received by the Governor-General or, if a later day is specified in the resignation, on that later day.

1	19 Termination of appointment
2 3 4	 The Governor-General may terminate the appointment of the National Security Legislation Monitor for misbehaviour or physical or mental incapacity.
5 6 7 8 9	 (2) The Governor-General must terminate the appointment of the National Security Legislation Monitor: (a) if the Monitor: (i) becomes bankrupt; or (ii) applies to take the benefit of any law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or
11 12 13 14 15	 (iii) compounds with his or her creditors; or (iv) makes an assignment of his or her remuneration for the benefit of his or her creditors; or (b) if the Monitor fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 16; or
16 17 18 19 20	(c) if the Monitor engages, except with the Prime Minister's written consent, in paid employment that conflicts or may conflict with the proper performance of the Monitor's duties; or(d) if the Monitor is absent, except on leave of absence granted under section 14, for 7 consecutive days or for 14 days in any
22	12 months. 20 Acting National Security Legislation Monitor
24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31	 (1) The Prime Minister may appoint a person to act as the National Security Legislation Monitor: (a) during a vacancy in the office of the Monitor (whether or not an appointment has previously been made to the office); or (b) during a period, or during all periods, when the Monitor: (i) is absent from duty or from Australia; or (ii) is, for any reason, unable to perform the duties of the office; so long as the period, or the total of all periods, is not more
33	than 12 months.

Part 2 National Security Legislation MonitorDi vision 2 Appointment of National Security Legislation Monitor

1 2	Note: A person may not act for more than 12 months: see paragraphs 33A(1)(ba) and (c) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 .
3	(2) Anything done by or in relation to a person purporting to act under
4	an appointment is not invalid merely because:
5	(a) the occasion for the appointment had not arisen; or
6	(b) there is a defect or irregularity in connection with the
7	appointment; or
8	(c) the appointment had ceased to have effect; or
9	(d) the occasion to act had not arisen or had ceased.
0	Note: See sections 20 and 33A of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 .

Part 3—Information gathering powers 1 21 National Security Legislation Monitor may hold hearings 3 (1) The National Security Legislation Monitor may hold a hearing for 4 the purposes of performing his or her functions under this Act. 5 (2) A hearing, or a part of a hearing: 6 (a) may be held in private if the National Security Legislation 7 Monitor so directs; and 8 (b) must be held in private for any time during which a person is 9 giving evidence that discloses operationally sensitive 10 information. 11 Otherwise, a hearing must be held in public. 12 (3) A hearing may otherwise be conducted in such a manner as the 13 National Security Legislation Monitor thinks fit. 14 (4) The National Security Legislation Monitor must ensure that a 15 record of a hearing is made. 16 (5) A direction given under paragraph (2)(a) is not a legislative 17 instrument. 18 22 National Security Legislation Monitor may summon person 19 (1) The National Security Legislation Monitor may, by notice in 20 writing, summon a person to attend a hearing at a time and place 21 specified in the notice: 22 (a) to give evidence; or 23 (b) to produce documents or things specified in the notice. 24 Failure to comply with a notice is an offence: see section 25. 25 Note: (2) The notice must: 26

(a) be in writing and be signed by the National Security

(b) be served on the person required to attend a hearing.

Legislation Monitor; and 27

1 2	(3) A time specified in a notice must be at least 14 days after the day on which the notice is given.
3 4 5	(4) A person summoned to appear as a witness at a hearing is entitled to be paid by the Commonwealth any allowances for travelling and other expenses that are prescribed by the regulations.
6	23 Evidence on oath or by affirmation
7	(1) At a hearing, the National Security Legislation Monitor may:
8 9	(a) require a witness to either take an oath or make an affirmation; and
10	(b) administer an oath or affirmation to the witness.
11 12	Note 1: Failure to take an oath or make an affirmation is an offence: see section 25.
13 14 15	Note 2: This means that a hearing is a judicial proceeding for the purposes of Part III of the Crimes Act 1914 , which creates various offences in relation to judicial proceedings.
16 17	(2) The oath or affirmation is an oath or affirmation that the evidence the person will give will be true.
18 19 20 21	(3) The National Security Legislation Monitor may allow a person attending a hearing who has been sworn, or who has made an affirmation, to give evidence by tendering a written statement and verifying it by oath or affirmation.
22 23	24 National Security Legislation Monitor may request production of a document or thing
24	(1) For the purposes of performing his or her functions under this Act,
25 26	the National Security Legislation Monitor may request, by written notice, a person:
27	(a) to give the Monitor the information referred to in the notice;
28	or
29 30	(b) to produce to the Monitor the documents or things referred to in the notice.
31 32	Note: Failure to give the information, or produce the documents or things, is an offence: see section 25.
33	(2) The notice must:

1		(a) be in writing; and
2		(b) specify the period within which the person must comply with
3		the notice.
4	(3) 7	The period specified in a notice must end at least 14 days after the
5	C	day on which the notice is given.
6	25 Offences	S
7	I	Failure to attend hearing
8	(1) A	A person commits an offence if:
9		(a) the person is served with a notice to attend a hearing; and
10		(b) the person fails to attend as required by the notice.
11	F	Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months or 30 penalty units, or both.
12	I	Failure to swear an oath, make an affirmation or answer a
13	q	question
14	(2) A	A person commits an offence if:
15		(a) the person is served with a notice to attend a hearing; and
16		(b) either:
17		(i) the person fails to be sworn or to make an affirmation at
18		the hearing; or
19		(ii) the person fails to answer a question at the hearing that
20		the National Security Legislation Monitor requires the
21		person to answer.
22	F	Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months or 30 penalty units, or both.
23	I	Failure to produce a document or thing
24	(3) A	A person commits an offence if:
25		(a) the person receives a notice to produce a document or thing
26		specified in the notice; and
27		(b) the person fails to produce the document or thing that the
28		person was required to produce.
29	I	Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months or 30 penalty units, or both.

1	Failure to provide information
2	(4) A person commits an offence if:
3	(a) the person receives a notice to provide information specified
4	in the notice; and
5 6	(b) the person fails to provide the information that the person was required to provide.
7	Penalty: Imprisonment for 6 months or 30 penalty units, or both.
8	Exception—reasonable excuse
9	(5) This section does not apply if the person has a reasonable excuse.
10 11	Note: A defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matter in subsection (5) (see subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code).
12	(6) It is a reasonable excuse for a person to fail to:
13	(a) answer a question; or
14	(b) produce a document or thing; or
15	(c) provide information;
16	on the ground that to do so might tend to incriminate the person or
17	expose the person to a penalty.
18	26 No criminal or civil liability under secrecy provisions
19	A person who is served with a notice under section 22 or 24 does
20	not commit an offence, and is not liable to any penalty, under a
21	secrecy provision because the person:
22 23	(a) answers a question at a hearing that the National Security Legislation Monitor requires the person to answer; or
24	(b) provides information that the person is required to provide in accordance with the notice; or
26 27	(c) produces a document or thing that the person is required to produce in accordance with the notice.

1 2	27 National Security Legislation Monitor may retain documents or things
3	(1) Subject to section 28, if a document or thing is produced to the
4 5	National Security Legislation Monitor in accordance with section 22 or 24, the Monitor:
6	(a) may take possession of, and make copies of, the document or
7	thing, or take extracts from the document; and
8	(b) may retain possession of the document or thing for such
9 10	period as is necessary for the performance of the Monitor's functions under this Act.
11	(2) While the National Security Legislation Monitor retains the
12	document or thing, the Monitor must allow a person who would
13	otherwise be entitled to possession of the document or thing, or a
14	person authorised by that person:
15	(a) reasonable access to the document for the purposes of
16 17	inspecting and making copies of, or taking extracts from, it; and
18	(b) reasonable access to the thing.
19	28 Protection of information and documents
20	(1) This section applies if documents having a national security
21	classification or containing operationally sensitive information are
22	provided by an agency to the National Security Legislation
23	Monitor.
24	(2) The National Security Legislation Monitor must:
25	(a) make arrangements with the head of the agency for the
26	protection of those documents while they remain in the
27	Monitor's possession; and
28	(b) ensure that the documents are returned to the agency as soon
29	as possible after the Monitor has examined them.
30

Part 4—Reporting requirements

3	29 Annual report
4	(1) The National Security Legislation Monitor must prepare and give
5	to the Prime Minister a report (an annual report) relating to the
6	performance of the Monitor's functions as set out in paragraphs
7	6(1)(a) and (b).
8	(2) The annual report must be given to the Prime Minister as soon as
9	practicable after 30 June in each financial year and, in any event,
0	by the following 31 December.
1	(3) The annual report must not contain:
2	(a) any operationally sensitive information; or
3	(b) any information that would or might prejudice:
4	(i) Australia's national security or the conduct of
5	Australia's foreign relations; or
6	(ii) the performance by a law enforcement or security
7	agency of its functions; or
8	(c) any information that, if included in the report, would or
9	might endanger a person's safety; or
20	(d) any information obtained from a document prepared for the
21	purposes of a meeting of:
22	(i) the Cabinet, or of a Committee of the Cabinet, of the
23	Commonwealth or of a State; or
.4	(ii) the Australian Capital Territory Executive or of a
25	committee of that Executive; or
26	(iii) the Executive Council of the Northern Territory or of a
27	committee of that Executive Council; or
28	(e) any information that would disclose the deliberations or
.9	decisions of:
0	(i) the Cabinet, or of a Committee of the Cabinet, of the
1	Commonwealth or of a State; or
32	(ii) the Australian Capital Territory Executive or of a
13	committee of that Executive: or

1 2		(iii) the Executive Council of the Northern Territory or of a committee of that Executive Council.
3	(4)	The National Security Legislation Monitor must get the advice of
4	()	the responsible Minister or responsible Ministers concerned as to
5		whether any part of the annual report contains information referred
6		to in subsection (3).
7	(5)	The Prime Minister must present an annual report to each House of
8		the Parliament within 15 sitting days of that House after the day on
9		which he or she receives the report.
10	(6)	However, before presenting an annual report to each House of the
11		Parliament, the Prime Minister must be satisfied that the annual
12		report does not contain information referred to in subsection (3).
13	(7)	If, because of subsection (3), the National Security Legislation
