

Plebiscite for an Australian Republic Act 2008.

Dear Sir/Madam

Please accept the following as my very strong objection against this bill.

To have a plebiscite would be a monumental waste of Australian tax payers money.

The Australian people clearly made their choice in the 1997 Referendum that we wished to retain our Constitutional Monarchy.

It is a system that has served this country well. A system that our forefathers brilliantly had the foresight to choose, to alter it could well place our current freedoms in jeopardy.

Respectfully Yours,

James Bruce (Mr.)
