

I wish to oppose in the most robust terms the-opposition to a plebiscite of Australia becoming a republic

It is not a issue of urgency and frankly the mainstream of Australia could not give "too hoots" about it

As Bob Hawke Peter Beatie and Malcolm Turnbull have said more than once "Forget it while the Queen is still occupying the position"

Move on to things that need to be done

Most Cordially
Peter Reedman

Northbridge NSW