

"NO, NO, NO"

The Standing Committee on Finance and Public Administration
The Senate
Parliament House
CANBERRA, ACT, 2600

With due respect to your request to accede to Australia becoming a republic, quoting the Prime Minister's reply to Professor Mick Dodson my answer is a polite No, No, No to a plebiscite or to change the present Constitutional Monarchy of Australia

I could express legal reasons for my attitude but the republic was rejected in 1999/2000 in all States of Australia,

Does Mr Rudd realize he may very well be tossed out at the next elections by placing this worry upon the People of Australia?

I demand that my right to vote at a possible Referendum under strict Electoral Rules. Any other form of voting, including a decision by your Standing Committee for a plebiscite I regard as entirely unacceptable, Mr Rudd has enough problems to restore the economy of this country and shows an immature view on this subject

Yours faithfully

(MRS HEATHER RIDEHALGH)
