

Dear Sir,
I strongly disagree with the reasons for the inquiry into King's Petrol etc., as I don't share the majority of Australians do about the issue of Australia becoming a republic is an important one. Recent opinion polls have had a large majority indicating that they do not want a republic in Australia.

This current extreme social cost increases of alcohol, then the long suffering taxpayers can sit off and. Most anti-alcohol activists are more concerned about fixing the money to pay their electricity, water bills, rates, and to pay for our increasing food costs etc.

As it is a very expensive public opinion poll, the correct way to change the constitution is by a conv

Reproduction, The last reproduction in 1994 resulted in a record in a record. No vote in a majority of the states, who provide and estimates. Also, it ^{will} ^{be} ^{about} ~~the~~ ^{of} ^{over} ^{the} ^{past} ^{decade}
^{has} ^{been} ^{an} ^{important} ^{factor}
next season.

More attention to not have the possibility & explain that a person would bring.

Why will it that you do not go ahead with the process.

John Jackson,