I cannot understand why you keep pushing something (in Australian Republic) that has already been rejected, by the Nation, with a large majority.

Something that will not make Australia a safer or better place.

At a time when there is so much tragedy & uncertainty in the world, a time when people should be unified, you are now setting out to divide Australians once again - Spending many millions of dollars to do so. Money that is badly needed for so many, much more important, projects.

I feel this is exceedingly irresponsible.

When I look around the World, at some of the Countries who were once Monarchies, who now have, or had Presidents, being a Republic, a dreadful state of greed, power, corruption that has brought so much suffering to people in many of these Countries. A few are even heading back to Monarchies.
Presidents can be corrupted - The Queen cannot.

Australia is a good, free Country. This is the reason so many people have migrated here & many are still trying.

When we have been so free & fortunate under our present system, 'A Constitutional Monarchy' how can you want to try, so hard, to destroy this?

What is your real reason?

I hope you don't succeed.

Yours sincerely
