

To Whom it may Concern:

With this statement I want to make known that I am against Australia becoming a republic because of it's heritage and history; to change Australia into a republic would mean to deny just this history which brought it into being.

Regards,

Marco Forg, Adelaide