

This is an emotional rather than a factual plea:

Do not for one moment think that we should sign this deal because we all know it will unquestionably be more in favour of the US than Oz and do we not have enough US influence in our lives already.

By way of an aside I read yesterday that 4,000 Queensland farmers are quitting already.
Good one Howard and Co!