

Dear Select Committee into the Free Trade Agreement between Australia and the USA, I write to express my concern over the lack of protection this will afford our organic producers. I also express my concern over the risks of the possible contamination to the environment posed by the production of GM food.

Betty Russell