

I am concerned that the FTA requires Australia to adopt America's copyright policies. In particular, those that led to the DMCA. The DMCA was very badly thought out, both in terms of its actual relevance to industry, and its practicality.

Other issues I have are the effects on the pharmaceutical benefits scheme and agricultural trade. In general, this FTA seems to impose a lot of obligations and lack any substantial benefits.

Thanks for your time.

Blair McKenzie