

In a fairer Australia...

VISION/
ULTIMATE
OUTCOME:

↑

CONTRIBUTE TO:

↑

COMMUNITY-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

↑

CONTRIBUTE TO:

↑

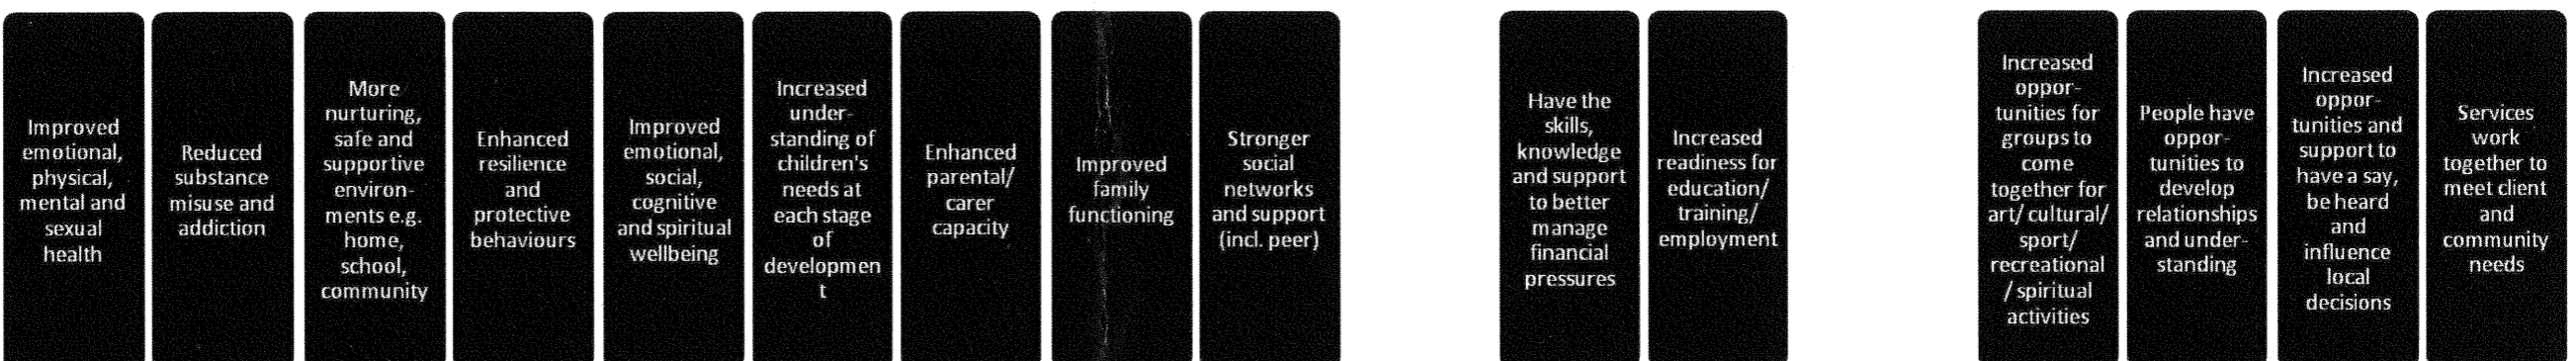

MISSION
AUSTRALIA
SERVICE-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

Children and families are:

Communities
are:

Satisfactory emotional, physical, mental and sexual health	Homes and communities are free from violence, abuse and neglect People feel safe in their community (including schools)	Children and families are skilled, confident and feel good about themselves	Strong and positive family relationships across each stage of development Children and families have positive community connections	Children and families access formal and informal support when needed Families have/can afford the essentials of life Parent/carer participating in education/training/employment as appropriate	See Homelessness Outcomes Hierarchy	People feel a sense of belonging to, pride in and understanding from their community People are respectful and understanding of difference and diversity	Services and policies are appropriate and responsive to community needs Communities have timely access to adequate and affordable services
--	--	---	--	---	-------------------------------------	---	---

In a fairer Australia...

VISION/
ULTIMATE
OUTCOME:

↑

CONTRIBUTE TO:

↑

COMMUNITY-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

↑

CONTRIBUTE TO:

↑

MISSION
AUSTRALIA
SERVICE-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

Young people are:

Communities
are:

Healthy Safe Developing and achieving Connected and participating Experiencing economic wellbeing Appropriately housed

Inclusive and cohesive Supported and resourced

Satisfactory emotional, physical, mental and sexual health Homes and communities are free from violence, abuse and neglect Young people feel safe in their community (including schools) Young people are skilled, confident and feel good about themselves Young people are on a pathway to educational/vocational attainment Young people are positively connected with family/other significant adults and friends Young people have positive community connections Young people access formal and informal support when needed Young people/families have/can afford the essentials of life Parent/carer participating in education/training/employment as appropriate Young people are engaged in education/training/employment as appropriate See Homelessness Outcomes Hierarchy

Young people feel a sense of belonging to, pride in and understanding from their community People are respectful and understanding of difference and diversity Services and policies are appropriate and responsive to community needs Communities have timely access to adequate and affordable services

Improved emotional, physical, mental and sexual health Reduced substance misuse and addiction More nurturing, safe and supportive environments e.g. home, school, community Young people are engaging in positive behaviours and avoiding high risk behaviours Improved emotional, social, cognitive and spiritual wellbeing Benefiting from education, training and/or employment activities Improved individual resilience, skills and knowledge Stronger and more positive family relationships Stronger social networks and support (incl. peer) Have the skills, knowledge and support to better manage financial pressures Increased readiness to undertake further education/training/employment

Increased opportunities for young people to come together for art/cultural/sport/recreational/spiritual activities People have opportunities to develop relationships and understanding Increased opportunities and support to have a say, be heard and influence local decisions Services work together to meet client and community needs

In a fairer Australia...

Children and families are:

Communities are:

Healthy

Safe

Developing and achieving

Connected and participating

Experiencing economic wellbeing

Appropriately housed

Inclusive and cohesive

Supported and resourced

Satisfactory emotional, physical, mental and sexual health

Homes and communities are free from violence, abuse and neglect
People feel safe in their community (including schools)

Children and families are skilled, confident and feel good about themselves

Strong and positive family relationships across each stage of development

Children and families have positive community connections

Children and families access formal and informal support when needed

Families have/can afford the essentials of life

Parent/carer participating in education/training/employment as appropriate

See Homelessness Outcomes Hierarchy

People feel a sense of belonging to, pride in and understanding from their community

People are respectful and understanding of difference and diversity

Services and policies are appropriate and responsive to community needs

Communities have timely access to adequate and affordable services

Improved emotional, physical, mental and sexual health

Reduced substance misuse and addiction

More nurturing, safe and supportive environments e.g. home, school, community

Enhanced resilience and protective behaviours

Improved emotional, social, cognitive and spiritual wellbeing

Increased understanding of children's needs at each stage of development

Enhanced parental/carer capacity

Improved family functioning

Stronger social networks and support (incl. peer)

Have the skills, knowledge and support to better manage financial pressures

Increased readiness for education/training/employment

Increased opportunities for groups to come together for art/cultural/sport/recreational/spiritual activities

People have opportunities to develop relationships and understanding

Increased opportunities and support to have a say, be heard and influence local decisions

Services work together to meet client and community needs

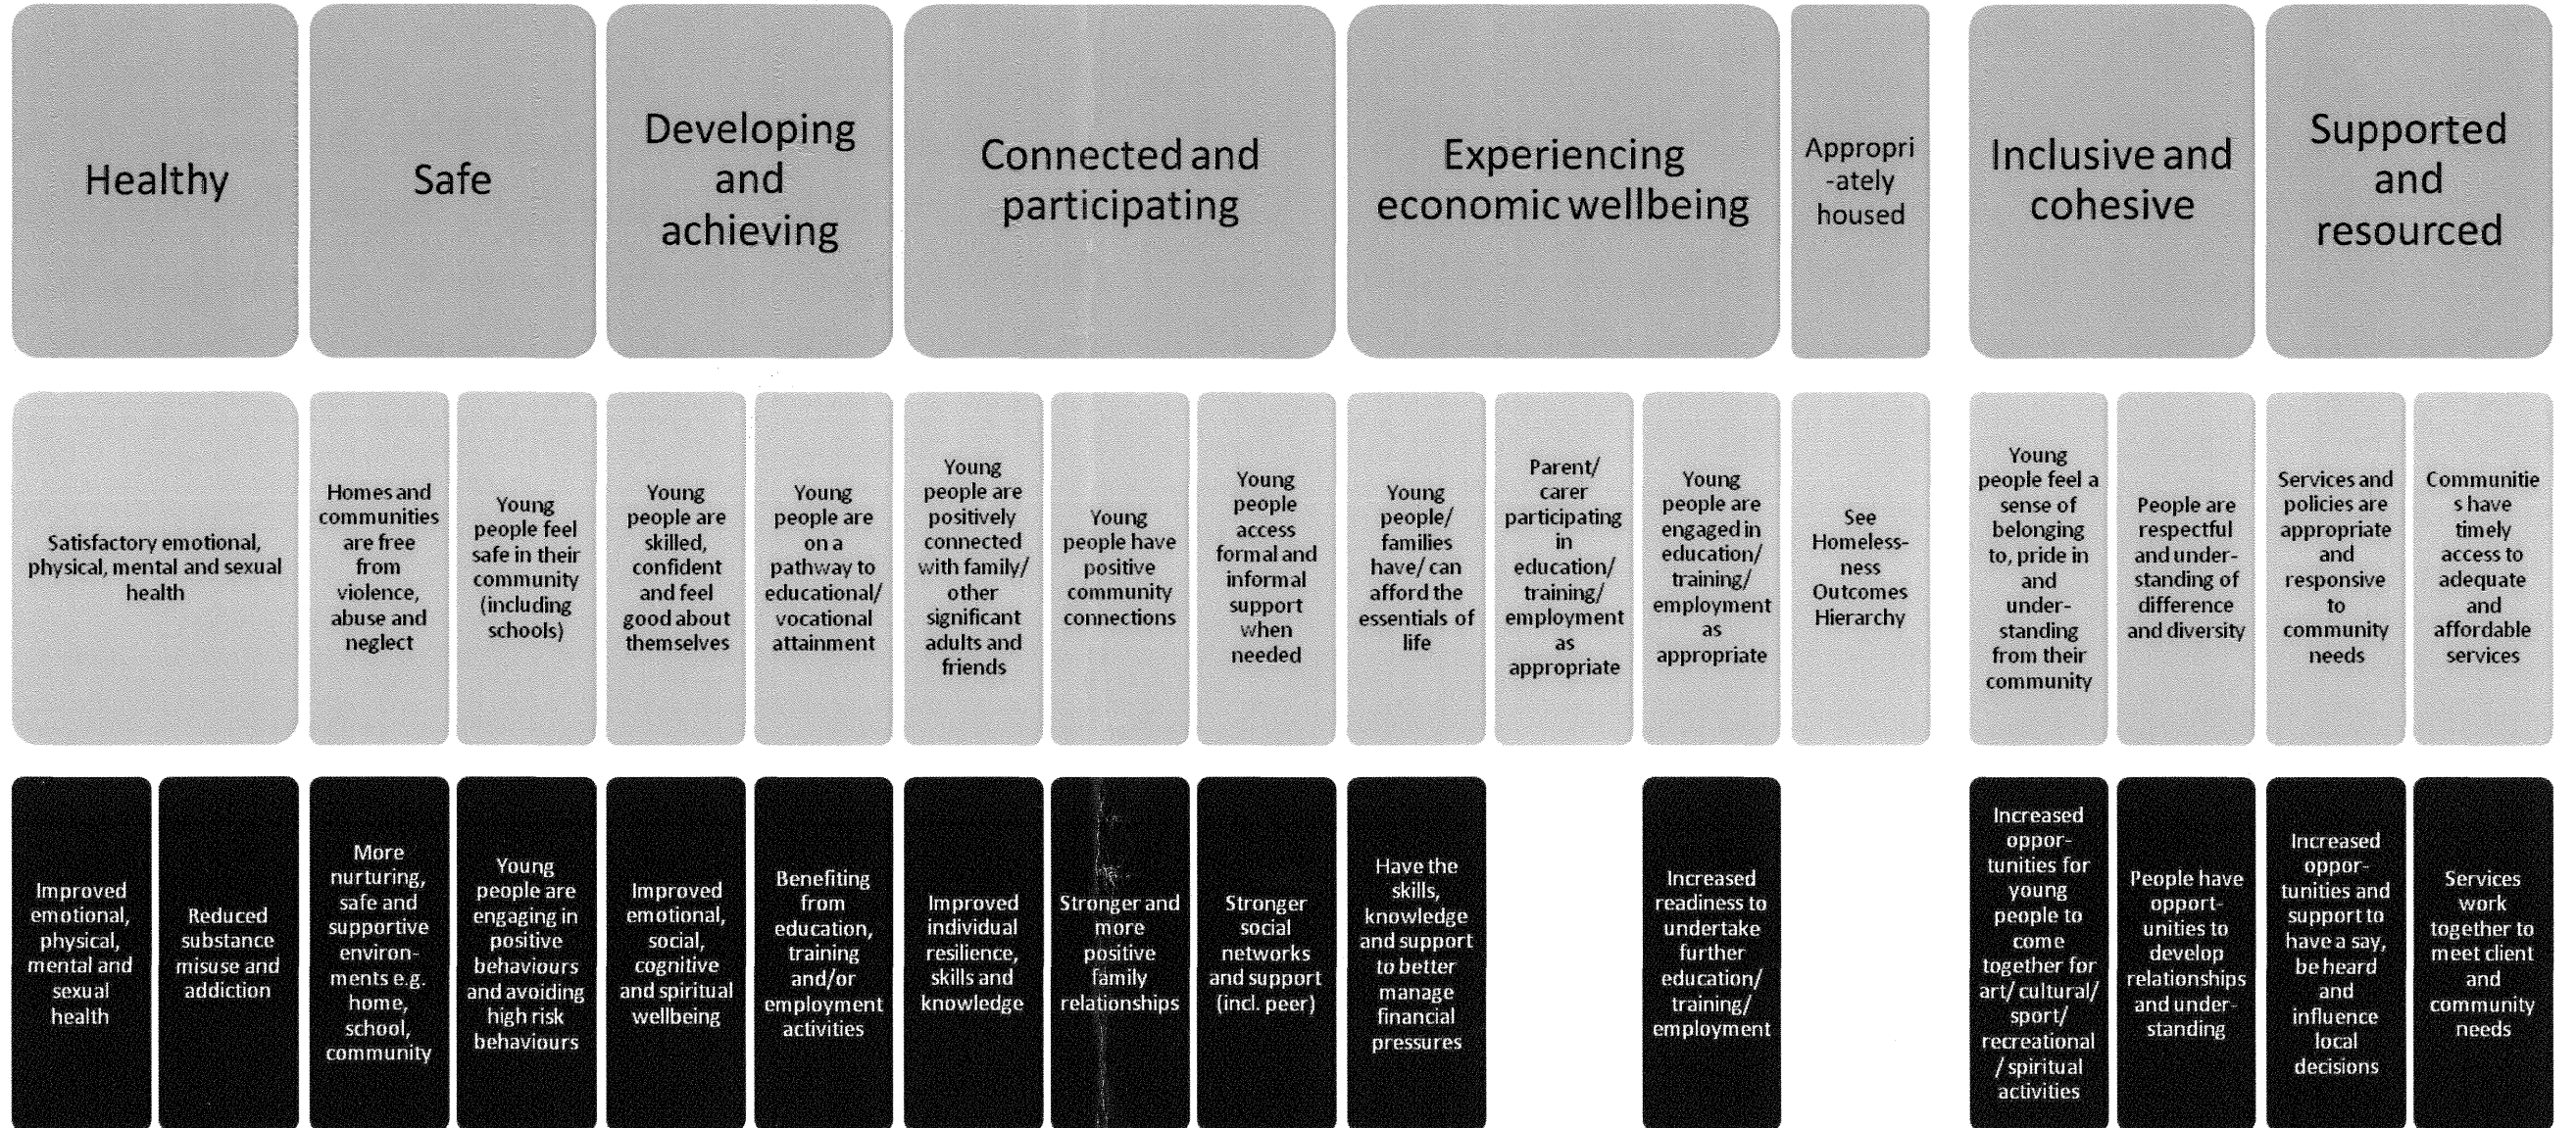

In a fairer Australia...

Young people are:

Communities are:

VISION/
ULTIMATE
OUTCOME:
↑
CONTRIBUTE TO:
↑
COMMUNITY-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:
↑
CONTRIBUTE TO:
↑
MISSION
AUSTRALIA
SERVICE-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

In a fairer Australia...

VISION/
ULTIMATE
OUTCOME:

CONTRIBUTE TO:

COMMUNITY-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

CONTRIBUTE TO:

MISSION
AUSTRALIA
SERVICE-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

People who are homeless or at risk of homelessness are:

Communities are:

Healthy Safe Developing and achieving Connected and participating Experiencing economic wellbeing Appropriately housed

Inclusive and cohesive Supported and resourced

Satisfactory emotional, physical, mental, and sexual health
Communities are free from violence, abuse and neglect
Housing/accommodation is safe and secure
People feel safe in their community
People are skilled, confident and feel good about themselves
People are positively connected with family/other significant adults
People have positive community connections
People access formal and informal support when needed
People have/can afford the essentials of life
People participating in education/training/employment as appropriate
Sufficient and affordable housing that is appropriate to people's needs
Fewer people coming into homelessness
Fewer people who are homeless

People feel a sense of belonging to, pride in and understanding from their community
People are respectful and understanding of difference and diversity
Services and policies are appropriate and responsive to community needs
Communities have timely access to adequate and affordable services

Improved emotional physical and sexual health
Reduced substance misuse and addiction
Have the skills and knowledge to better manage emotions and behaviour
People living in unsafe situations have access to safe housing/accommodation and support
Improved emotional social cognitive and spiritual wellbeing
Improved legal situation
Benefiting from educational training and/or employment activities
Improved individual resilience, skills and knowledge
Strong and positive relationships with family/other significant people
Stronger social networks and support
Have the skills, knowledge and support to better manage financial pressures, including debt(s)
Increased readiness to undertake further education/training/employment
People are able to access housing/accommodation suitable to their needs
People have the skills, knowledge and support to retain their accommodation
People have appropriate skills and support to live successfully in the community
Improved transitions from State care and other institutions/services

Increased opportunities for people to come together for art/cultural/sport/recreational/spiritual activities
People have opportunities to develop relationships and understanding
Increased opportunities and support to have a say, be heard and influence local decisions
Services work together to meet client and community needs

In a fairer Australia...

VISION/
ULTIMATE
OUTCOME:

CONTRIBUTE TO:

COMMUNITY-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

CONTRIBUTE TO:

MISSION
AUSTRALIA
SERVICE-
LEVEL
OUTCOMES:

People who are homeless or at risk of homelessness are:

Communities are:

Healthy Safe Developing and achieving Connected and participating Experiencing economic wellbeing Appropriately housed Inclusive and cohesive Supported and resourced

Satisfactory emotional, physical, mental, and sexual health Communities are free from violence, abuse and neglect Housing/accommodation is safe and secure People feel safe in their community People are skilled, confident and feel good about themselves People are positively connected with family/other significant adults People have positive community connections People access formal and informal support when needed People have/can afford the essentials of life People participating in education/training/employment as appropriate Sufficient and affordable housing that is appropriate to people's needs Fewer people coming into homelessness Fewer people who are homeless People feel a sense of belonging to, pride in and understanding from their community People are respectful and understanding of difference and diversity Services and policies are appropriate and responsive to community needs Communities have timely access to adequate and affordable services

Improved emotional physical and sexual health Reduced substance misuse and addiction Have the skills and knowledge to better manage emotions and behaviour People living in unsafe situations have access to safe housing/accommodation and support Improved emotional social cognitive and spiritual wellbeing Improved legal situation Benefiting from educational training and/or employment activities Improved individual resilience, skills and knowledge Strong and positive relationships with family/other significant people Stronger social networks and support Have the skills, knowledge and support to better manage financial pressures, including debt(s) Increased readiness to undertake further education/training/employment People are able to access housing/accommodation suitable to their needs People have the skills, knowledge and support to retain their accommodation People have appropriate skills and support to live successfully in the community Improved transitions from State care and other institutions/services Increased opportunities for people to come together for art/cultural/sport/recreational/spiritual activities People have opportunities to develop relationships and understanding Increased opportunities and support to have a say, be heard and influence local decisions Services work together to meet client and community needs