

I am particularly concerned about the amendment to include "associating with terrorists" as an offence as it seems to be an amendment which may lead to abuse of civil rights, especially if it does not discriminate in favour of those who unwittingly "associate with terrorists". I believe the Federal Police and other investigating authorities have adequate powers under the provisions already made.

Ms Margaret Opie
COBARGO NSW