

This bill is unacceptable as it means that innocent people may spend years in prison before their names come clear and their innocence are proven. This bill will have a devastating effect on civil rights of people living in this country. The government should be ashamed to prepare such a law that will have more harm than good. This bill will increase the tension in Australia about civil rights and racism and this is the last thing Australia needs right now. The government should follow the verdict "INNOCENT UNLESS PROVEN GUILTY" and shouldn't give any organisation any right to step over individual's lives and their rights so easily. The law should be for protection and justice, not for the opposite, which will be granted if the Bill pasess.
