Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing as a concerned citizen wishing to make my views known as strongly as possible; (after all I am a Voter of age $53\frac{1}{2}$, and have this right!).

The 30 questions, which you have put together, (or whoever has put them together) regarding the Senate Inquiry into a Republic, are thoroughly and absolutely BIASED and WASTEFUL! Whatever anyone wishes to push, Republic or otherwise, the AUSTRALIAN PEOPLE have spoken already in the not-toodistant past, and FIRMLY REJECTED an Australian Republic!!! Remember ^{???} _{!!!}

Instead of WASTING valuable funds on any such enquiry, the PEOPLES' VOTE AGAINST a REPUBLIC should be respected!

No form of
No government on this earth is perfect

I speak as a student of Politics at Auckland University (in the past) but a CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY is by far the best form of Democracy in the world!

America's democracy is seriously flawed and open to great abuse and misuse, as past history shows (eg. Watergate etc.) - I do not want a pale copy of American democracy for our wonderful country, Australia. Please,

PLEASE, leave well enough alone! No one in Australia will be richer, happier or better-off by ditching the Constitutional Monarchy. These ~~are~~ ^{thoughts} are truly RUBBISH!

Yours faithfully
Peter
