Additional question received 20 November 2006

Senator Ludwig asked the following additional question on 20 November 2006:

Could the AFP provide a copy of the questions asked in the survey and any existing summary report, the provisions of which do not breach confidentiality arrangements?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

Questions asked in the 2006 AFP Client Satisfaction Survey Report are attached.

The structure of the survey was designed to prevent identification of agencies. As a result no summary is available about Centrelink responses to the survey. However, the executive summary to the survey is attached.
