Dear Sir/Madam,

I was born in Australia, in a town called Sunshine on 22/1/65.

My parents immigrated to Australia from Malta in the 1960's.

As a child I enjoyed being dual Citizen ship, Australian by birth, Maltese descent under Maltese parents.

In 1976 when I was 12 years old my parents moved back to Malta.

Between the age of 18 and 19 I had to

Australia is my birth right, I have every right to get my Australian Citizenship back, I still have close ties in Australia like Uncles, aunts, in-laws, cousins, friends.

We are still in very much Contact.

I still managed to get to Australia at the age of 22 years old.

I have a daughter which was born in Australia, she is 13 years old, and I would like her to see her birth place, and show her how beautiful it is and all the opportunities she has in Australia

I just hope my daughter would not have to go through what I went through.

Please help me gain my Australian Citizenship it means the world to me.

Yours Faithfully,

Sharon E. Spiteri.
