

To whom it May Concern

I wish to add my opinion to the Senate Inquiry on Detention Centres. As an individual I wish to express my concern that holding refugees in Detention Centres is deplorable and inhumane. Refugees are not criminals so why do we treat them as such. I would like to see all Detention Centres closed down and refugees moved into a community setting while they await their claim for permanent status.

Lyn Nasir
Macquarie University
NSW