

To whom it may concern.

I am so concerned about the present situation of compulsory detention of refugees, that I decided to let you know. All of my group feel as I do that it is an inhumane situation. Put yourself in their place and think what it would do to your mind, not to mention your well being otherwise. Most of these people left a hopeless situation in search of something better for themselves and their families, and what did they find in Australia?? We should all hang our heads in shame at the fate that has been meted out to them, human beings with the right to a decent life at least.

I hope some divine intervention may happen to loosen the strings that keeps these poor people in prison; their only crime being to want a better life.
