

I personally do not believe we should detain asylum seekers for more than a month. That should be sufficient time for them to to be processed.

Detention centres and prisons generally should not be run by private companies seeking a profit. Making money out of detaining people is replusive. It leads to corner cutting and deprivation of human rights as we have seen.

John Biggs,
SANDY BAY,
Tas