

Dear sir/madam

I just want to comment that whereas the 'Pacific Solution' or offshore processing system may have some validity for refugees arriving from second or subsequent countries of visitation, the proposals to treat first country arrivals in the same way is inhumane, inhospitable, un-Australian, and as I understand it is both contrary to international law and UN conventions.

Please recommend against the proposed law.

David Hill
Kangaroo Valley
NSW