

Please accept this as my submission to the Inquiry into the provisions of the Anti-Terrorism Bill (No. 2) 2005.

I am strongly opposed to this Bill as I believe it will negatively effect our Australian way of life and freedom we have and love in our country. This proposed Bill will unnecessarily erode our civil liberty and is being rushed through under a cloud of fear, which I strongly believe is unjustified.

Its premise is not within the ethos of the "Australian way" of a "fair go" and "innocent until proven guilty."

I strongly urge the Committee to recommend that this proposed Bill, in its present form not be passed by parliament.

Yours Sincerely
Paul Robb
