

FRANK CHESWORTH
ARCHITECT

6th November 2005

The Senate Committee looking into the Anti-Terrorism Legislation
Parliament House
Canberra.

Dear Senators,

I do not agree with the Anti-Terrorism Legislation because I believe that the section which ^{makes} it a criminal act to inform anyone at all, will be used as a means of stifling dissent about government actions and policies.

The existing laws are sufficient.

The proposed legislation is unnecessary.

Yours Faithfully, Frank Chesworth