

Senate Committee on equality of marriages

To whom it may concern:

Marriage between a man and a woman is the only recognised marriage institution condoned in the Bible and although I am happy to allow and respect every person to do what they want to do with their lives, I disagree that they should have legal marriages – it would make marriage a farce. It has already been denigrated by film stars and similar people being married for a few days or months showing how meaningless marriage is to them and that it is just for show and glamour.

I understand that gay couples can be very faithful to each other, but if they are gay in the first place, they obviously don't give a fig about Christian principles which is what original marriage was based on.

Yours faithfully
