

I want marriage to remain between a man and a woman. There is no better way to raise children than in a home with a father and a mother working together to raise the children. Overseas same sex couples should not be recognized in Australia. Why should they be allowed to break the law and not everybody else? It is better if they don't come here to start with.

There should never be any form of 'marriage' for same sex couples. That is bad news for children to have same sex parents. Both the man and the woman bring special gifts and talents that the other lack, so having same sex couple would mean that necessary things would be missing from the children of that union.

Society as we know it has had marriage between a man and a woman as part of the foundation of the country. You destroy marriage as we know it and society as we know it is destroyed also. The country would collapse, and no longer be able to function due to the things missing in the leaders raised up from same sex couples.
