

Marriage is and should always be a union between a man and a woman. It's not about people being stiff to change and being stubborn to sexuality choices and diversity. This is about a man and a woman making a commitment to God and each other. It doesn't and can't work any other way. Same sex couples should not be given the right to engage in such a tradition. Marriage is before God. God is against sexual immorality. Why would same sex couples want to come together in front of God when He is against this? Even if they use a celebrant. Marriage is in the eyes of God. It is His plan for us, that we go forth and multiply.
