

Marriage is the uniting of a man and a woman. Marriage is about love, commitment, fidelity, and the stable nurturing of children where they are the product of marriage. These qualities are what make marriage the building block of society. If people of the same sex choose to be together that's their choice, but marriage is something for a man and a woman. There's a reason why people of the same sex can't have children, because it's not natural and it's not the way things were created to be.
