

To:

The Senate Standing Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs

Dear Sir,

I would like to submit my view that marriage must continue to remain between a man and a woman. Changes of this constitution will jeopardise the family, which is the core of the society and the nation. Same sex marriages performed overseas should not be recognised in Australia.

Yours sincerely,