

RE Marriage amendment Bill

I simply want to state that as a conservative married man, I have NO objection to same sex relationships, but i strongly believe that marriage is a sacred right between a man & a woman.

It has been the order of things since this great country was formed from our states and believe strongly that this should stay as it is.

I have no objections to common law rights for same sex partnerships and other legal rights ,that are already in place.