

To whom it may concern,

I write to oppose the move by Senator Sarah Hanson-Young to legalise homosexual marriage. I believe this bill undermines the marriage as outlined in the constitution. The vast majority of Australians still view marriage as between a man and a woman, it is only the minor minority that wish to remove one of the fundamental blocks of a family. This would therefore remove a child's rights to grow up and mature into an adult while forming their own beliefs and values. Therefore marriage should be preserved in its original state in order for children to be given every possible opportunity to have a mother and a father are not trampled.

Regards,

Caleb McKee.