

MARRIAGE EQUITY BILL

Good Morning, this is to register my total opposition to the marriage equity bill conveying equal marital status to Homosexual men and women in a relationship. It has been my sorrow to know many same sex couples who sadly have had a dissolution of their De Facto relationship in a ratio higher than the average heterosexual norm. In listening to and talking with gay and lesbian people, the topic and style of conversation about sexual partners and personal likes and dislikes would make a wharfie blush, and the disregard these couples have for the normal conventions of marriage such as fidelity and nurturing and protection is ludicrous in the extreme. I cannot stand idly by while this mockery of the marriage vows and institution is perpetrated on the Australian public with full cognizance of the people elected by the general public to manage the greater good of the country.

You have been elected to watch over the best interests of the majority of this great nation, not drag it into the gutter and soil its heritage in the sewers of the warped egos of a very very tiny minority.

Have some backbone and stand up for what is the best about this great land:-

The government of the people, by the people who are elected to SERVE, not RULE.

Have a great day!
