

Friday 20th August 2009

I am asking that male – female marriage is retained as the only relationship which is considered marriage in both name and law.

It is my personal conviction which is supported by my reading of the Christian Bible, that this is what is intended by God, for our society to work properly.

I can heartily recommend male-female marriage, as mine was quite long lived until the early medical death of my wife, of then 33 years.

Regards,